My Dear Dinesh,

Vigilance Awareness Week is observed every year in October/November across the country by all offices of central Government/ PSUs/ Banks at the initiative of Central Vigilance Commissioner (CVC) since 2000. This year it will be observed from 3rd- 7th November 2009 as per CVC communication dated 23/09/2009.

Vigilance organizations in the state governments are also expected to organize the Vigilance Awareness Week in their respective states as conveyed vide Principal Secretary Home (ex officio Chief Vigilance Commissioner of Rajasthan) letter dated 29 October 2009.

It is requested that efforts be made to organize as many activities as possible during this week especially with a view to raise public awareness about corruption. You may also consider adding anti- corruption messages, slogans in various advertisements/ hoardings/ banners released by your department during this period.

Your attention is also drawn to another initiative of CVC by which it was made mandatory to display a message at reception of all government offices to catch attention of public on this subject. You may consider installing such display boards at all important offices of your department. A draft text of such message is enclosed. It would be appropriate if a beginning is made during this week.

with regard,

Yours sincerely,
